FRIDAY, Jan. 17-P.M. There was rather an unsettled Stock market at the Second Board to-day, without marked feature, excepting dullness. Canton and Farmers' Loan was firm, but generally in the Fancies there were more sellers than buyers, and quotations were weaker. Morris was lower, and pressed on the market, selling at 23, a decline of 1 ocent. Erie was also easier, but with little Stock offering. A few Ohio and Pennsylvania Bonds were sold at 95, but 96 is asked. For Southern Michigan Road parwas offered. Reading was not very firm. For Government and State Stocks the movement is to fair extent, and prices are firm. Sales $50,000 U. S. 5s for banking purposes. At the Second Board there was a much better feeling generally, and quotations for all descriptions advanced .-There was an advance of 2 $ cent in Canton, selling at 72, with an active demand. A Bear sale of 100 shares was made at 684, seller twelve months. This Stock sold yesterday at Boston at 74. Norwich was also in good demand, 700 shares having been sold, closing at 66%, an improvement of 1 & cent. The sales of Erie were 800 shares. and prices were well sustained. The fall in this Stock of the last few days has brought in a new set of buyers. Eight miles of the Dunkirk end of the Road were opened for travel on the 8th inst. Reading was 711, a slight advance on the morning price. Operators do not seem to be much alarmed by the action of the Pennsylvania Legislature. Harlem remains without much change, but was heavy. It fluctuates between 701 2711. Farmers, although firm at the First Board, was weak at the Second, selling at 66, seller sixty. Long Island was firmer, going to 19 again. The rumor is that the debt is arranged, and that the Road will not be sold. Mohawk sold at 991, which is about yesterday's price. For Rochester and Syracuse 123 was bid without sales. A sale of East Boston was made at 27, the first operations in this Stock for a long time. Stonington was rather weaker.

In Exchanges the market is quiet, and the rates are without change, with fair supply. Sterling is 10@101 : France are 5.10.

The business in Freights is dull and quiet, but rates are unchanged. Engagements of Wheat were made to Liverpool at 3d; 200 bales Cotton-3s 6d; 2,000 bbls Turpentine, 1s 6d, and some Dead Weight at 10s; and 300 tuns Wood at 11 @ 14s. To London, 1,000 boxes Cheese were taken at 30s, and other heavy goods at 25s. To Havre, the Cotton rate is lo.

The Havre packet takes about $250,000 in spe. cie, nearly all silver.

The Banks and public institutions continue to be very much annoyed for want of change. The Mint is much abused for not coining gold dollars. connection with this subject, we annex a letter received from the Director of the Mint by Mr.

MINT OF THE UNITED STATUS. Mint of the United States, January 13, 1851. 5

Six—I have had referred to me a letter of yours to the Post Office Department, in which you refer to the want of gold dollars in your oefice, and suggest your desire to exchange for them, at the Mint, American coin of the larger denominations.

Having been requested by the Department to address myself to you upon this topic, I have to state that an exchange such as you propose would infringe on the fundamental purpose of our erganization, which is to coin into the national currency builton not previously in that shape.

mental purpose of our erganization, which is to cook into the national currency builtion not previously in that shape.

I can think of but one means by which, in a perfectly regular manner, we could furnish you with these coins, which is by the Treasury Department drawing on our builtion fund for the requisite sums, payable in gold dollars.

I suggest that method, however, with much reluciance, because we have already a difficulty in meeting the regular demand for these c sins, and because, further, it would havely the dimunition of our builtion fund at a time most unpropitions to our depositors.

The difficulty in regard to small change has grown entirely out of the variance in the value of silver as compared with gold, by which it has become profitable to hoard and export the more valued metal, silver, and employ gold as a preferable medium in the payment of debts. It is evident, therefore, that as long as the present relation of the two metals continue, the present scarcity of the silver will remain unabated. It is just as clear, too, that the Mint cannot furnish the remedy, since the silver deposits which furnish the material of our colonge must continue to distinish. Considering these facts, it seems to me that creditors, and the post offices in particular, will find that the only remedy in their power is to decline receiving any coins in payment of debts which do not constitute the precise sum due. The obligation of making "change" is certainly not required by law. Our coins are made legal tenders for the amounts on their face, or for any multiples of those amounts. But there is surely no right to tender a larger piece in payment of a debt for which the law provides a smaller piece. A double-cagle may certainly be declined if offered to pay a five-continue of the same and if a double-cagle may certainly be declined if offered to pay a five-continue to find the continuence of the same that the only respectfully your faithful Servant, R. M. PATTERSON, Director.
